A Word from the Director

Dear readers,

2023 seems so far away. I am writing this editorial in April 2024, when so many important things are happening – we are launching a new magazine website, establishing an editorial board, building an exhibition in Ostrava, Zelená hora, Plasy and Šumperk. We have just returned from Ukraine, where the Russian offensive is expected any day now. Together with 29 people we brought 12 cars for medics and medical supplies worth about CZK 15 million. I am grateful that we are all back in good health. In Lviv and Kiev I talked to disabled veterans, people on the street, a young soldier, who was heading to the front the next day, and many others. They told me how desperately slow Europe was helping Ukraine. They cannot understand why the free world is allowing such enormous suffering for people who are fighting for freedom and desperately resisting the insidious Russian attack for over two years. On many parts of the front line Ukrainian troops are outnumbered ten to one. I cannot answer their questions. The Czechs are making a real effort to help. Civic fundraisings are an example for the entire world. The Ukrainians appreciate our help. The initiative of President Petr Pavel to purchase artillery ammunition for Ukraine outside the EU member states raises hopes.

Of course, we are not forgetting our central project. Last year, our organisation interviewed over a thousand witnesses. Their stories have been processed and made available on Memory of Nations, and the testimonies from World War II and Communism invite us all to defend freedom. The witnesses emphasize that we should be aware of the price that previous generations paid for freedom. I think this is part of the answer to the question of why the very Memory of Nations is helping Ukraine.

We are trying to pass on the testimonies of witnesses and important historical moments to younger generations, which is why I am incredibly pleased with our projects in schools. I will reveal that we decided during the next three years to create a modern textbook that would lead pupils and students to make greater use of the Memory of Nations database and to do their own research into 20th century history.

In conclusion, I would like to ask you not to forget to make a trip to Brno, Pardubice or Olomouc, where you will find our interesting and engaging exhibitions telling dramatic stories of the 20th century – Memory of Nations Institutes.

Thank you, especially our kind donors, supporters. It could not be done without you! Please, stay with us. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely,

Mikuláš Kroupa
Director of Post Bellum,

WITNESSES STORED IN THE MEMORY OF NATIONS

+ 1 834

INCREASE IN 2023

The Memory of Nations can boast third most extensive collections of its kind in the world. This position has been boosted once again in 2023 by the efforts of documentarians. Throughout its existence, it has been capturing, preserving and processing the memories of those who were subjected to the oppression of totalitarian regimes.

PUBLISHED STORIES

+ 1 190

INCREASE IN 2023

(MORE THAN TWO NEW STORIES ARE PUBLISHED
ON THE MEMORY OF NATIONS EACH DAY)

In 2023, we continue to record the memories of direct witnesses of World War II. Our efforts bore fruit, for example, compelling interviews with world-renowned epidemiologist Prof. Ervín Adam, a Holocaust survivor, or a former member of the U.S. Army Leonard Jindra, who took part in the Normandy landings on June 6, 1944, were created. However, we also collected testimonies relating to communist totalitarianism. Mrs. Mendlová shared her dramatic memories of the Soviet occupation with us. She not only lived through the Soviet occupation but was also there when the occupiers killed her friend.

Moreover, we try to record history on a global scale. In addition to the traditional topics, we filmed several testimonies of Ukrainian refugees or met people who supported Czechoslovak dissent from abroad before 1989. Thanks to this, in 2023 we were able to document, for example, Scandinavian Support to Charter 77.

Witness interviews are usually recorded by documentarians and camera operators in one of our studios. If a studio session is impracticable, we use voice recorders to ensure that no meaningful testimony is lost or forgotten.

We tell real stories. We are looking for ways to pass on the experiences and stories of witnesses, especially to young people. Witnesses share their life stories and experiences with us so that the public can learn about them, and they often invite us to talk about them.

Based on the memories from the Memory of Nations, we are preparing a radio and television programme, Stories of the 20th Century. We regularly publish in the online Memory of Nations Magazine and other media. Last but not least, we have opened the Memory of Nations Institutes – centres of modern history, culture and meetings. We also publish podcasts, publications, or comic books.

RADIO STORIES OF THE 20TH CENTURY

As in previous years, every Sunday in 2023, the Czech Radio broadcast touching and captivating stories of the witnesses. The programme is prepared by Mikuláš Kroupa and Adam Drda.

MEMORY OF NATIONS INSTITUTES (IPN)

The Memory of Nations Institutes offer their visitors modern exhibitions dedicated to the 20th century and especially to people who experienced totalitarianism first-hand. The first modern exhibition at the Institute opened in March 2022 in Pardubice, followed by Olomouc and in 2023 Brno. From the beginning of May to the end of October, a seasonal programme is also taking place at the IPN Prague in Strahov. The key role of the Institutes consists of modern exhibitions prepared for students and young people. In an attractive form, it educates them about the Holocaust, battles, the domestic resistance during World War II, communist political processes, the 1968 occupation or, for example, normalisation. Combined projections, projection through smoke, light and sound effects or the aforementioned augmented reality are the backdrop for storytelling. But among them is also the archive, where it is possible to see and touch the objects connected to the stories.

From May 2023, visitors of the Brno Memory of Nations Institute can visit the new interactive exhibition Silent Heroism. Since its opening, it has been visited by almost 1 700 visitors and IPN Brno has become a fully-fledged cultural centre for schools and the public, hosting 47 diverse events for more than 3 000 visitors during the year.

The Olomouc Memory of Nations Institute has a very unusual building, it is located in a former civil protection shelter. In these specific premises, an audiovisual exhibition entitled Uncovered Stories of the 20th Century is open to schools and the public, which reveals the dramatic fates of the war and communism witnesses from the Olomouc region. The exhibition was visited by 1 735 visitors during 2023.

Our first Institute, Pardubice Memory of Nations Institute, in has been fully operational since 2022. In 2023, it newly included a second epoch into the interactive exhibition Silent Heroism. The opening of the new stories of Milena and Leopold from the communist 1950s took place symbolically on the eve of the celebration of the national holiday on 17 November. Over 4 500 people from the public and schools visited Silent Heroism during the year. In addition, regular Monday talks have become established, which have become part of Pardubice's cultural life.

MEMORY OF NATIONS INSTITUTE IN GREAT STRAHOV STADIUM, PRAGUE

Strahov Stadium has seen a lot. Major historical moments have taken place here. This is the reason why the Memory of Nations has chosen this building as its Prague base for cultural events. From the beginning of May to the end of October, cultural events and other captivating programmes are regularly taking place in the Strahov premises. From October 2023 there is also the opportunity to play the cryptographic game Frost at Strahov in an authentic historical atmosphere.

MEMORY OF NATIONS MAGAZINE

In 2023, we tried to keep the Memory of Nations Magazine diverse and attractive. Once again, personal stories with an overlap into Czechoslovakia social reality were a significant success, followed by topics that pursue and support Post Bellum's international activities.

MEMORY OF NATIONS AWARDS

In the National Theatre, as part of the celebrations of 17 November, we traditionally awarded several personalities who stood up to adversity live on Czech Television 2. In 2023, five laureates from the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Ukraine received the award, who are united by their resistance to totalitarian regimes. The evening was hosted by Daniela Brzobohatá and Michael Szatmary. Music was provided by the Memory of Nations Orchestra and the Ježkovy stopy Orchestra.

MEMORY OF NATIONS PODCAST: DOBROVSKÝ & ŠÍDLO

Czech Memory of Nations Podcast: Dobrovský & Šídlo has been bringing a mix of the current affairs and the recent history to the scene for the fourth year now. In 2023, it published 30 episodes, including several specials, and participated in 17 live performances. The content includes interviews between Jan Dobrovský and commentator Jindřich Šídlo. Its popularity continues to grow.

STAY BY YOUR RECEIVERS EXHIBITION

The Exhibition Stay by Your Receivers captured the centenary history of Czech Radio through the captivating memories of witnesses. The stories of people who were close to the radio were chosen. The stories range from the war years to the present day.

Other exhibitions:

- Travelling exhibition Five-Year Plan of Terror with stories of 16 witnesses, including personalities such as Karel Otčenášek and Jan Petrof, was on display in seven towns of the Hradec Králové Region. The exhibition containing 20 panels recalled the rampage of communist power and the times of injustice in the first five years of its rule.
 - The collection Central Bohemia in the Memory of Nations brought twelve stories from the times of war, occupation and communist totalitarianism. All of them took place in the Central Bohemian Region.
 - The phenomenon of the Iron Curtain was presented in the travelling exhibition When the Iron Curtain Fell. From September to November, eight stories of witnesses travelled the path where the Iron Curtain led. The open-air exhibition gave an insight into life in the region after the Western and Eastern bloc were firmly separated.
 - In November, The Memory of/for Veterans exhibition mapped the lives of war heroes. In this symbolic month, it told the stories of our freedom fighters.
 - The June 1, 1953 – First Bell Day exhibit commemorated 70 years since the violent suppression of the anti-communist uprising that took place in Pilsen on the first day of June 1953.
 - Stories of North Bohemia – Turning Points of the 20th Century presented personalities who are connected by landscape, people and modern history of this territory.
 - The outdoor exhibition Currency Reform in Pardubice focused on the fates of several citizens to inform about the oppressive times and the effects of the unprecedented communist intervention in the economy.
 - The project Memories of Witnesses From the Rychnov Region presented eight stories from this submontane region. It described the end of the war, the onset of the negative influence of the Soviet Union and the stories of those who resisted persecution and sought independence and democratic values even in an oppressive era.
 - The exhibition No Night So Dark tells the story of the Wels family, a Czech Jewish family whose story was interrupted by the Holocaust. The history of the family comes to life after the discovery of the family archive containing hundreds of documents and photographs. The exhibition gives access to this precious archive and offers personal glimpse into the life of a family spanning more than a century.
 - As part of the project Help From the North we outlined the stories of people from Norway, Sweden and Denmark who helped Czechoslovak dissent in the 1970s. Visitors were also introduced to stories of the Chartists who received the aid.
 - The travelling exhibition Memory of Nations of the Karlovy Vary Region mapped the stories of the witnesses from the West Bohemia region who were affected by the totalitarian regimes of the 20th century.

Other documentary projects:

- The documentary Everyone, Grip Their Hammer is based on archival recordings and memories of witnesses recorded in Ostrava between 2020 and 2023. It provides an insight into the harsh reality of life of miners and workers in socialist Czechoslovakia, authentic stories of courage and sacrifice in harsh mining environment.
- The screening of the documentary Samizdat Workers which was dedicated to the Zlín dissidents who secretly produced books and periodicals. The film depicts the difficult process and the enormous effort it took to create uncensored publications.
- With the screening of the film Mladá Boleslav Region in the Shadow of the Soviet Occupation of 1968, we got a glimpse into the period of normalisation. We went back to the time when Czechs and several thousand Soviet occupiers coexisted, and everyday life here took place in the presence of the Soviet 18th Motorized Artillery Division.
- He Told Me I'm Like a Cat traces the life of Pavla Jerusalemová, whose fate is intertwined with the anti-Nazi resistance, the post-war artistic avant-garde, communist persecution and, finally, emigration. Her story is full of dramatic twists and turns and the various stages of her life that shaped her.
- The years 1939–1945 were a period of suffering for the Volhynian Bohemians due to Soviet and Nazi terror as well as banditry. Many of them fought for freedom in the Czechoslovak Army in exile fighting on the Eastern Front. The documentary Czech Children of Volhynia follows the fate of people born in Volhynia, whose families, after repatriation settled in the Olomouc region.

The most viewed post was a video featuring a beautiful tramp song dedicated to people whose love was separated by the bars of communist prisons (877.7 thousand people reached). The song evokes the story of Milena Blatná and her husband Jiří, who met in the corridors of the Jáchymov mines, where Jiří slaved away as a prisoner. Milena, a civilian employee, fell in love with him. This story is now part of the new interactive exhibition Silent Heroism, on display at the Memory of Nations Institute in Brno. This song was sung by Vladimír Javorský on the stage of the National Theatre at the request of Milena Blatná during the presentation of the Memory of Nations Awards.

In 2023, we reached 2.5 million people on the X platform. The biggest success was the retweet of Tomáš Mandlík's post, who posted a photo of one of the runners taking part in the Run for Memory of Nations 2023. Runners traditionally choose their hero to run the race for, this participant chose Andrej Babiš. His choice was criticized in a tweet with hyperbole. Memory of Nations retweeted the post with the words: Freedom gives room for such impudent ideas too. In a free society, everyone can express his or her thought potential.

Educating

In 2023, at Memory of Nations Education, we immersed ourselves in our standard projects, which include Stories of Our Neighbours, educational programmes, i.e. workshops, cinema stories, tutor workshops and most recently talks. We engaged in theatre programs and supported the adaptation and education of Ukrainian students. Throughout this time we have maintained a close cooperation with educators across the Czech Republic, for whom we organised two events: the Summer School in the atmosphere of Broumov Monastery and a grand soirée in the Baroque refectory of the Dominican Monastery in Prague. We have also created several new methodology handbooks and worksheets, including those focusing on topics such as the Cuban Revolution or the fate of the children from Lidice and Svatobořice. There were also two travelling exhibitions. One of them has already managed to visit ten Czech schools this year. It is called Stolen Children and tells the stories of children from Central and Eastern Europe who were forcibly removed from their homes during the Second World War and destined for Germanisation in the form of a comic strip.

STORIES OF OUR NEIGHBOURS

A months-long project for thirteen- to fourteen-year-old primary school pupils and secondary school juniors was again a key activity of the Memory of Nations Education Department. More than 3 500 children participated in this initiative. Documenting teams, collaborating with teachers and experts from Post Bellum, were tasked with interviewing survivors, filming their memories, digitising historical photographs, researching archives and eventually processing the results into radio, television or newspaper reports, comics or cartoons. They then presented the story of their witness to the public.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMMES

In collaboration with the Film Production Department, we created a new educational cinema story Beyond the Borders (Flight 096) with its international premiere in Germany and subsequent release in Switzerland – Zurich and Geneva. International audiences also attended our workshop You Won't Get Away With This in cooperation with Peace Line or a seminar on working with witnesses' stories in education in the international project Uprooted – (Hi)Stories of Stolen Children during WWII. A lecturer programme Out of Isolation was developed in cooperation with the German organisation Zusammen.HALT, which focuses on freedom of expression in art during totalitarianism and the possibilities of artistic of expression in a democratic way, e.g. through the art technique of mail art.

MEMORY OF NATIONS THEATRE

During 2023, the Memory of Nations Theatre held a total of 10 drama clubs throughout Czech Republic. Thanks to the ongoing cooperation with the Dutch Theatre Na De Dam we were able to present the production "Memory is Us: Road 19" as part of a series dedicated to the victims of the Holocaust. In November we started working with the pupils on a new production "Memory is Us: Happiness".

MEMORY OF NATIONS SCHOOL NETWORK

During the year 2023, 44 schools newly registered in the Memory of Nations School Network, which means that we reached the total number of more than 400 schools regularly participating in our educational projects. In seven regions (Prague, Brno, Jihlava region, Karlovy Vary region, Kolín region, Olomouc region and Těšín region) we have implemented a comprehensive programme of joint education and sharing of good practice, within the framework of which we organised 60 courses and excursions for 153 teachers of social science subjects.

MEMORY OF NATIONS ADAPTATION CENTRE

Memory of Nations Education also helps adapt and educate Ukrainian students aged 14 to 18, who were forced to abandon their homes and failed to enrol in Czech schools. The Memory of Nations Adaptation Centre has been running its preparatory classes since September 2023, which aims to prepare Ukrainian youth for successful integration into the Czech educational system. The first year was successfully completed in spring 2023, and most of the participants now are studying at Czech high schools or universities, while others are actively involved in the work process. In 2023, 163 students took part in these programmes.

VELVET IN SCHOOLS

We worked with Thanks That We Can organisation to once again organise Velvet in Schools, a project that helps primary and secondary schools throughout the Czech Republic commemorate 17 November. We prepared a broad selection of talks, discussions, and lectures on historical and contemporary topics.

WITNESSES CONTACTED WITH AN OFFER OF HELP

In 2023, we continued in activities of the Memory of Nations Help Hub, which mainly assists witnesses whose memories have been recorded by Memory of Nations documentarians. As planned, we expanded our network of counselling and contact centres to include branches in Pilsen, Liberec and Pardubice. Our qualified social workers provided a field professional and civic consultations service, in cooperation with local volunteers and cooperating professional counsellors and organisations. The centre's staff helped clients most often with orientation in difficult life situations and provided them with support in their solutions.

In 2023, we contacted more than 1 149 witnesses, made 112 personal visits, and also congratulated 452 witnesses in person or by phone on their birthdays. The needs of our clients are varied: arranging care services, helping to find temporary respite care or a suitable nursing home for permanent residence, transport to medical appointments or social activities, assistance with applications for State Social Support (e.g. carer benefits) or pension benefits and other benefits. We have been a registered social service since September 2023 and in 2024 we plan to expand the Help Hub to the Olomouc region.

HELP FOR UKRAINE

The ongoing war in Ukraine is the reason why we do not rest and are still continuing with the collection Help for Ukraine with Memory of Nations. We are focusing on medical supplies for Ukrainian defenders. Within several humanitarian missions, we have delivered to Ukraine a total of 13 off-road frontline ambulances, bandage material and other necessary equipment for paramedics for a overall value of CZK 42 million. In addition, we have equipped hundreds of Ukrainian soldiers training in the Libava military training camp with combat medical kits, protective goggles and vitamins. In cooperation with our partners, we also supplied Ukraine with 48 lung ventilators, 350 adjustable beds and 6 high-capacity transformers.

Thanks to the Memory of Nations collection, we have been able to supply Ukraine with:

- 248 lung ventilators
- 23 off-road ambulances
- 350 adjustable beds
- paramedic equipment worth CZK 42 million
- 13 557 bulletproof vests
- 4 467 ballistic helmets
- 57 generators

- in Sokolov we organised a public talk with Eva Erbenová, a Holocaust survivor who, among other things, went through the concentration camp in Svatava
- we organised a discussion on the persecution of churches during the communist regime with Bishop Mons. František Radkovský in Mariánské Lázně
- in Sokolov and Karlovy Vary we presented for the first time the exhibition No Night So Dark, which follows the tragic fate of several generations of the family of the First Republic architect Rudolf Wels
- we expanded our activities to a part of the Ústí nad Labem Region and recorded memories of the witnesses in Louny and Kadaň
- 17 teams from Karlovy Vary region, Cheb region and Mariánské Lázně region joined the Stories of Our Neighbours project

WITNESSES RECORDED IN 2023

International cooperation

We narrate, document, educate, and help even beyond the borders of our country. We are part of an international network of partner organisations united by the same values and goals. Together, we strive to make the stories of witnesses of injustice known to the general public even beyond our country's borders. The international section of the archive contains thousands of testimonies from more than 35 countries. In 2023, we continued to record important testimonies from abroad and to help in countries where totalitarian regimes continue to rule in the 21st century.

RECORDED TESTIMONIES OF CUBAN DISSIDENTS
IN 2023

MEMORY AND CONSCIENCE OF NATIONS

An international project documenting the lives of human rights activists and political prisoners around the world. So far, we have published stories of witnesses from Venezuela, Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan and autonomous regions such as Crimea, Uyghuristan and Tibet.

MEMORY OF THE CUBAN NATION

We recorded 20 new testimonies of Cuban dissidents, expanding the world's largest online Cuban archive to 226 published witnesses. In addition, a methodology for high school and upper elementary school was created to introduce students to key milestones in 20th and 21st century Cuban history.

MEMORY OF ARMENIAN NATION

In cooperation with partner organisations from Yerevan, we recorded a total of 15 testimonies of Armenian witnesses and organised 8 educational sessions in Armenian schools. Interesting stories of dissidents and activists from the last decades of the USSR and the first years of independent Armenia were recorded.

THE REMOVED CHILDREN

In 2023, a comic book, The Removed Children, was published in German and Spanish translations, based on five selected interviews with expulsion survivors. Their stories came to life thanks to the imagination of a Czech writer and five Czech artists.

SHELTER CITY PRAGUE

We documented the stories of refugees who had to leave their country of origin due to war or political oppression and found shelter in Prague. The ongoing war in Ukraine is the reason why the vast majority of the stories recorded are the memories of Ukrainian women of the suffering caused by the ongoing war.

CZECH AND MORAVIAN NOBILITY AFTER 1945

In cooperation with the Adalbert Stifter Verein in Munich, we have documented other stories of representatives of the Czech nobility abroad. An exhibition of the same name was created, which was on display in Prague from September to November 2023 and is open to visitors in Brno from November 2023.

FROM GERMANY TO GERMANY THROUGH CZECHOSLOVAKIA

We finished work on the documentary project that recorded the memories of former citizens of East Germany who attempted to cross the Iron Curtain in Czechoslovakia in 1975-1989. Based on their compiled testimonies, a documentary film was made in 2023.

ZUSAMMEN.HALT EDUCATIONAL PROJECT

During the two-year German-Polish-Czech project Zusammen.HALT, young people were able to meet the witnesses in person, learn about their life stories and discover various historical sites and monuments together. The educational activities included experience workshops, citizen journalism, mail art and slam.

Other projects:

- Thanks to the support of the International Visegrad Fund, we recorded 20 new testimonies of Armenian and Georgian dissidents or victims of totalitarian regimes from these two Caucasian countries.
- In the project Charter 77 in the Light of Nordic Support to the Czech Democratisation Movement we recorded testimonies of Norwegian, Swedish and Danish activists who were involved in supporting Czechoslovak democracy between 1968 and 1989.
- We had the opportunity to deepen our cooperation with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum by making USHMM recordings available to the Czech public.
- We held two international week-long seminars for education professionals in Berlin and Krzyżowa, Poland. During the seminars we dealt with the fate of children taken away during World War II by the German occupation regime.
- We recorded another 11 testimonies of representatives of the Czech community in Banat. An exhibition on the deportations to the infamous Romanian camp Baragan was also created in 2023.
- Together with teachers and pupils of Czech schools abroad, we documented the stories of expatriates in California, New York, Manchester, Vienna and Geneva for the fifth years of the project.

Fundraising

Individual fundraising

Donor support is absolutely crucial to the existence and independence of our organisation. We are very grateful for the support of 11 111 donors in 2023. We appreciate immensely their trust, which enables Post Bellum to continue its work and develop. Also in 2023, we held traditional donor events such as the Run for the Memory of Nations, the War Veterans' Day collection, and the highlight of the season was the traditional presentation of the Memory of Nations Awards on 17 November at the National Theatre with the participation of the President of the Czech Republic, Petr Pavel.

KLUB PŘÁTEL PAMĚTI NÁRODA

The Friend's Club is a community of people who support us financially and share our interest in the legacy of past generations. We meet regularly. For example, we went together on a trip to the former convict quarry Mořina or spent a memorable day at the castle in Velké Meziříčí, where Count Jan Podstatzky-Lichtenstein hosted us. We also organised a series of guided walks to places of memory.

MEMORY OF NATIONS COLLEGIUM

The Memory of Nations Collegium is a loose association of friends and partners of Post Bellum. Its aim is to connect personalities of Czech public, social and business life who are not indifferent to the legacy of older generations. The members of the Memory of Nations Collegium are united by their shared respect for those who resisted the totalitarian regimes of the 20th century.

PROCEEDS FROM THE WAR VETERANS' DAY COLLECTION

PUBLIC COLLECTION FOR WAR VETERANS' DAY

The ninth War Veterans' Day public collection was held in 2023, with tens of thousands of people supporting it by purchasing poppy flowers. A total of CZK 4 316 886 was collected at 1 483 collection points. The highlight of the fundraising was the Concert for Heroes in St. Vitus Cathedral at Prague Castle, which raised CZK 373 784. Part of the proceeds went to support the Memory of Nations Help Hub and the remaining funds were used to document the stories of the heroes.

HELP FOR UKRAINE WITH MEMORY OF NATIONS

The solidarity of our donors has not diminished in 2023. We were able to deliver over 200 hospital beds and other equipment to the front lines, which included makeshift ambulances, hundreds of first aid kits, a cart for transporting the wounded, equipment for paramedics, 11 reconnaissance drones, 20 power packs or winter clothing from public collections.

RUN FOR THE MEMORY OF NATIONS

The eighth edition of the Run for the Memory of Nations was a great success. 3 300 runners took part, contributing more than CZK 1.6 million to activities for the Memory of Nations. Runners started at 11 locations across the Czech Republic, while hundreds more ran at home and abroad as part of the Run Anywhere! The Group Challenge is already a popular annual event, with 56 corporate teams participating, including 224 active runners. The total distance covered was incredible: 24 036 436 km with a running time of 2 616 hours.

PROJECTS SUPPORTED

In the area of grant fundraising, we closely followed the announced grant programs in 2023. From December to January, we managed to submit a total of 184 grant applications, of which we have received support in the amount of CZK 27.3 million as of 29 February. The largest providers of grant support are traditionally local self-government units, followed by ministries.

We greatly appreciate the support that enables us to fulfil and further expand our activities (not only) in the field of documentation, education and narration. We are especially pleased that a number of institutions have supported our efforts repeatedly over multiple years.

Subsidiaries

POST BELLUM PRODUCTION

The limited liability company Post Bellum Production is a subsidiary of the registered institution Post Bellum z. ú. Its main aim is to procure further funds to support the activities of its parent nonprofit organisation via usual commercial enterprises. These mainly include the Memory of Nations e-shop or the Memory of Nations Café in Brno, commercial exhibitions and the sale of advertising space. In addition, a part of the editorial office, namely the Memory of Nations Podcast Dobrovský & Šídlo, also falls within Post Bellum Production, s.r.o.

The new e-shop, which we launched in autumn 2022, has proved its worth. In particular, thanks to a high degree of automation of administrative processes, we have significantly reduced the costs of mailing. We were able to include several new products, which was reflected in the overall turnover and profit of the e-shop. We have multiplied both of these parameters for 2023. We have significantly expanded our book portfolio, where we no longer offer only our own books, but also publications from Argo, Host, Academia, Labyrinth, Kher, Albatros Media and other publishers.

Memory of Nations Café function within the Brno Memory of Nations Institute and is located at the same address. We joined forces with Brno IPN in 2023 and the Memory of Nations Café is involved as a co-organiser in a number of activities, such as book or film evenings, lectures, talks with witnesses, as well as the organisation of smaller musical events. We have expanded the café facilities to include a small kitchen where we can now prepare refreshments. We are trying to draw on recipes from local witnesses.

MEMORY OF NATIONS GRAMMAR SCHOOL

This is the third year of our comprehensive four-year grammar school with a focus on the humanities. Its mission is to develop young people's natural desire to explore the world, to support their ability and courage to forge one's own path through life. We share common values and projects with our founder. In the study programme's signature subject, Memory of Nations, students participated in our renowned project Stories of Our Neighbours to become documentarians of life stories. The GPN Academy is also part of the grammar school, in which students and participants of all ages learnt together in courses on social science topics, but also embroidered or practiced yoga together.

*Memory of Nations Grammar School and Post Bellum Production are subsidiaries of Post Bellum, z. ú., therefore their activities are not included in the financial report.

Sister organisations

POST BELLUM UKRAINE

In Post Bellum Ukraine in 2023, we recorded 80 stories, published 46 testimonies and submitted 14 grant applications (independently and in cooperation with the Czech Post Bellum). We also organised more than 30 meetings with witnesses and re-established partnerships with research, media and museum institutions.

We actively worked on recruiting documentarists, videographers and collaborators from different regions of Ukraine. As a result, around 30 new people joined our team. As part of our activities, we organised film expeditions to Odesa. At the same time, we also held a winter school of documentation in the Carpathians. As in 2022, we arranged the telecast of the Memory of Nations Awards and facilitated the arrival of the Ukrainian priest Vasyl Vyrozub, one of the laureates of the Memory of Nations Awards, to Prague for the gala evening on 17 November.

In 2023, we presented Post Bellum's activities at 6 national events. During the year, we recorded more than 50 media appearances and expanded our base of supporters on social networks, such as Facebook – over 2 000 followers and Instagram – around 14 000. As part of a separate project on the reintegration of Ukrainian displaced persons in 2014–2015, we also launched our own YouTube channel, which was viewed by over 8 000 people.

*Post Bellum UA is independent sister organisation of Post Bellum, z. ú., therefore their activities are not included in the financial report.

POST BELLUM SLOVAKIA

In 2023, we documented a total of 171 stories for our Slovak database. Of these stories, we published 126 on our website and in our magazine. Moreover, we organised 265 educational workshops attended by approximately 6 625 children and students. In Revúca we presented the Stories of Our Neighbours project and in Bratislava we staged the Memory of Nations Theatre. Commented educational screenings were seen by 370 high school students in Bratislava.

MEDIA OUTPUTS IN 2023

As part of our educational activities, we created the Memory of Nations Puzzle website, which offered accompanying methodology materials and worksheets for teachers. We also held the annual multi-genre international educational conference for male and female university students, teachers, fresh graduates and alumni for the second time.

In addition, we tried to use other forms of expressing and presenting 20th century stories. We created two short animated films about Otto Šimek and Nad'ka Földvári, which we released on YouTube. We presented our activities to the general public through travelling exhibitions. In total, we organised 11 talks in the session Freedom is not a happy ending! and 38 new episodes of the podcast Stories of the 20th Century. In 2023, the media informed about us 1 212 times.

* Post Bellum SK is independent sister organisation of Post Bellum, z. ú., therefore their activities are not included in the financial report.
